MINERS FLOCK IN TO SEE BILL HAYWOOD

COISE CROWDED WITH VISITORS

—PRIVATE RESIDENTS GO INTO THE HOTEL BUSINESS.

Boise, May 10.—The city is filled with men, in the most part miners, who have come to witness the trial. Every hotel is crowded so that the halls are filled with cots and private residents are taking in roomers at ex-orbitant prices.

residents are taking in roomers at exorbitant prices.

Miners fresh from the diggings in the hills are most picturesque of the spectators at the trial. Broad-shouldered, strong-armed, clear-eyed—their boots and clething earth-stained—they stand for a type of husky and industrions American manhood.

They have "knocked off" work for a few days and strolled in to see how "Bill" Haywood is getting along. A good many of them worked with
"Bill" in the mountains of southern Idaho and they have pleasant recollictions of that requaintance. It lingers as much for the tenderness with which he treated his invalid wife as for his good fellowship.

They are not allowed to visit him developments in the case. Some are here as prospective witnesses and some to seist in the preparation of the case. They are quiet, well-dressed men, but they have a keen interest in this climax of the labor strugsie of fifteen years.

It stated that the Waters-Pierce Oil company, organized under the laws of the state of Missouri, had not made or entered into and was not concerned in any pool or trust agreement, contract or confederation to fix prices or limit the quantity of any article of merchandise,

FIRST STEAMER LEAVES SEATTLE FOR NOME.

Seattle. Wash., May 16.—The steamer Corwin, owned by the L. N. Gray Steamship company, left this port today for the north mining towns. She is the first vessel to make the trip this season. Although the Corwin is the first boat to leave, the season will practically open with the sailing of the steamships Ohio, Victoria, Pleindes and Senator, which depart on June 1. The Pleiades is the only steamer that does not carry assengers, and all available space on the other three steamers has already been engaged. The Corwin has the distinction of having been the first vessel into Nome every season for

New York, May 10.—William Murphy, whose conviction on the charge of bribery has been confirmed by the supreme court, will enter today upon his sentence of one year in the house of correction. Funeral Took Place From the First Presbyterian Church. Burial at Fairview.

The funeral of the late Edmund G. Ross, former governor of New Mexico, and United States senator from Kansas, was held at the Presbyterlan church, on Silver avenue and Fifth street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The services were most solemn and the attendance was large, The veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic marched from the home of the deceased on west Raliroad avenue to the church, where the funeral services were conducted, and afterward followed the body to the grave in Fairview cemetery. There was not a dry eye among the conrades of the G. K. Warren Fost, Grand Army of the Republic, as the old warriors looked upon the face of Edmund G. Ross for the last time.

The pallbearers were W. W. McDonaid, N. B. Field, Amada Chaves, W. B. Childers, Alfred Grunsfeld, H. R. Fergusson, A. W. Hayden and F. H. Kent. The floral tributes sent by the many friends of Edmund G. Ross were beautiful and expressive of the great esteem in which the man was held.
